DEAR DR. ROACH: I have never given much thought to the spellings of various medications. Why do some have an uppercase first letter while others do not? Patent versus generic maybe? — C.A.W.

ANSWER: You're right. All medicines have a generic name, which is uncapitalized, as well as a brand name. For example, furosemide's brand name is Lasix. There's also a chemical name, which is usually a mouthful. Manufacturers try to make the brand name memorable ("Lasix" was chosen to remind doctors that it "lasts six" hours), so they will often choose to use the brand name even when a generic substitute is available.

I prefer generic names when prescribing medications and when discussing them with the students and residents I teach, as the generic name often gives clues to the structure and mechanism of the drug.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer letters, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu.

Now here's a tip!

by Jo Ann Derson

* Yard sale, tag sale, garage sale... whatever you call it, if you do it right, you can walk away with a decluttered home and a nifty bit of cash, too. Here's my tip: Advertise, advertise, advertise — on local message boards and websites, as well as using signs. The more people you drive to your sale, the more you are likely to sell.

* “When you put jewelry out at a garage sale, you can display it for better results. Use a window screen for paired earrings, or maybe a tie rack for necklaces. I sell a lot of costume stuff in my sales. Kids especially like it.” — R.G. in Mississippi

* One way to organize a tag sale is to group items in bins by price. Or have a dollar table. If you have lots of clothes, you might price it by the piece and have good price breaks for people who buy lots of pieces.

* "Put well-marked sports equipment in a place that can be viewed by passersby. Make attractive displays of toys and tools as well. People are always looking for these." — M.H. in Alabama

* Not sure how to price your items for resale? The rule for yard sales is as follows: For items that are new, still with tags or in original, unopened packaging, price it as 50% off retail. For items that are in good working condition, with all parts and accessories, mark it 30% of what you paid. Other items should be marked down to 20% of what you paid. Be honest with yourself. If something is just usable, but not really worth a buck, put it in a "free" bin. Your customers will be grateful, and you might make an additional sale.

* Be sure to have plastic bags on hand. Boxes and newspaper are handy if you are selling any dishes or glassware, too.

Send your tips to: Now Here's a Tip, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.

Horoscopes for June 2025

ARIES (MAR 21-APR 20): Ask yourself what's most important: courage or faith. You'll need to find the middle ground between the two then move forward. You're ready to present your most artful self to the world. And that requires both conditions.
Lucky Days: 3 - 10
Lucky Numbers: 11 - 29

TAURUS (APR 21-MAY 21): A strong desire to have your way could rock the boat this month. Rather than hope those around you will change to your liking, ask yourself what you can transform within yourself to attract the kind of peers and community you long for now.
Lucky Days: 14 - 18
Lucky Numbers: 3 - 33

GEMINI (MAY 22-JUN 21): Make the most of peace and quiet this month. You are right on the border of a new seven-year cycle that will energize and possibly disrupt many of your tried and true habits and relationships. "The only constant is change," will become your motto henceforth.
Lucky Days: 23 - 25
Lucky Numbers: 10 - 24

CANCER (JUN 22-JUL 22): Life becomes richer when you continue to investigate and explore. You've just entered a one-year cycle that finds you itching to expand your horizons. Go back to school? Learn a different trade? Enter into a new relationship? All are good possibilities during the next 12 months.
Lucky Days: 7 - 27
Lucky Numbers: 8 - 43

LEO (JUL 23-AUG 23): Your element: Fire, has returned to cosmos and this provides you with a boost of daring and courage to move into the promotional stage with your ongoing projects. Daring involves both audacity and wisdom, and you've built a good supply of both this year.
Lucky Days: 8 - 17
Lucky Numbers: 7 - 19

VIRGO (AUG 24-SEP 23): To what and to whom are you attracted? There are clues

LIBRA (SEP 24-OCT 23): Disruptions in your relationships can have a debilitating effect on you. This month you need to make some decisions about who and what you want to continue to invest your time and attention toward. Sometimes it is best to release what has run its course, be it person, place or thing.
Lucky Days: 9 - 20
Lucky Numbers: 7 - 17

SCORPIO (OCT 24-NOV 22): Do you have unrealistic expectations? This is the month when you'll need to clarify what's realistic, what's fantasy and what is actually attainable. You're being guided by a particular muse that is asking you to refine your sensibilities and how you express them.
Lucky Days: 18 - 21
Lucky Numbers: 3 - 12

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 23-DEC 21): The full Moon on the 11th falls in your sign. This illuminates how revelation and inspiration need to find viable expression via a creative outlet. Projects that involve the workings of your mind. Writing, journaling, communicating are key expressions now.
Lucky Days: 17 - 20
Lucky Numbers: 3 - 43

CAPRICORN (DEC 22-JAN 20): Contemplate what the Chinese philosopher Lao Tzu meant when he said, "As soon as you have made a thought, laugh at it." The nut of this month's horoscope for you is: ride lighter in the saddle. Release your grip of seriousness. And then see how things change when you laugh.
Lucky Days: 6 - 16
Lucky Numbers: 44 - 47

AQUARIUS (JAN 21-FEB 19): This summer you'll most likely be introduced to parts of yourself that will surprise you. Some wonderful, some ugly. Don't be intimidated by what you discover, life is presenting you with these insights so you can feel the depth (and magic) of being alive. Give thanks.
Lucky Days: 12 - 27
Lucky Numbers: 19 - 50

PISCES (FEB 20-MAR 20): You're quickly approaching a launch pad that's been waiting for your arrival for a couple of years now. It's time to bring your best game, show your best skill set, and then rocket yourself into the bigger world around you. No more hiding out, it's time to rise and shine.
Lucky Days: 2 - 22
Lucky Numbers: 5 - 39

A Costly Poker Mistake
By Jonathan Little

As I was watched the final table of the $10,000 buy-in World Series of Poker (WSOP) Main Event, I noticed that many of the players had a clear, easily fixable, leak in their strategy that will make it difficult for them to succeed in the long run. Their mistake is that they raise with far too many hands from early position!

Within the first few hands at the WSOP final table, three different players raised with trashy hands from early position, the worst being with the 10c9h. It may be fun and make you feel powerful to raise with two somewhat reasonable cards from early position, but you must realize that you are taking your hand and playing it from out of position against the best of the remaining hands at the table.

If you think about this logically, each player yet to act will have a premium top 10% hand 10% of the time. This means that if you are raising into six players, they will each not have a premium hand 90% of the time. You then multiply .90 x .90 five times to see how often someone yet to act will have a premium hand. So, 53% of the time someone will not have a premium hand, which means 47% of the time, someone will have a premium hand, putting the junky initial raising hand in awful shape.

While this may not seem too bad, the cutoff and button can play more than only premium hands due to their positional advantage. The big blind also gets to play a wider range profitably due to getting excellent pot odds.

When you work this math out, the preflop raise from early position may only steal the blinds 15% of the time, which is not often at all. Do you think that you can profitably play a marginal hand from out of position when you are in rough shape when you get called?

To make matters even worse, at the WSOP final table, some players have a shallow stack. On the first hand at the final table, a player raised the Kd6d and was pushed all in by the small blind's 8s8c. The King-Six then folded, which may not seem too costly, but if you consistently bleed off a few big blinds due to raising with marginal junk from early position, you will have a difficult time accumulating a large chip stack unless your opponents are especially tight and passive, which is rarely the case in today's poker games.

With $10,000,000 up top, which is what last year's winner was slated to win, small mistakes can potentially cost you thousands, if not millions, of dollars.

Not Me, Blame Them!

Watch out if someone smiles after things have gone wrong. That person has undoubtedly thought of someone else to take the blame. —Ms. Know-It-All

First things first, so happy Father's Day, Sunday, June 15th, to all our fathers, stepfathers, foster fathers, grandfathers and anyone who takes on the role of a father. For those like me who have lost their fathers, our hearts grieve as others celebrate with their loved ones. So, if you can spend the day with yours, cherish that time. Go out to dinner, then go play bingo, or teach your loved one to play. It's time well spent.

If you're in Laughlin, Nevada, try the bingos there. I have and like them all. They are at Riverside, Edgewater, and Tropicana casinos. Last time I was there, I played at Edgewater, the newest of the three halls. The chairs are low to the floor, but there are cushions available free of charge. I'm short and the added boost is just right for me to comfortably play. Robert and I put our games on computers; no daubing papers. That leaves me free to gobble chips and slurp a beverage while waiting for my computer to flash BINGO! It's weeks later and I'm still waiting, but my friend playing with us that day bingoed twice. I don't remember the last time I won at bingo, but then, some days I'm lucky if I can figure out what day it is and be able find the bathroom. The staff at Edgewater bingo is fantastic, friendly, and helpful. Thank you, Kelly, Brandi, Susan, Nicole, Judy, and all the others that I don't have room to mention. They didn't promise me I'd win some moolah, but hey, they didn't promise me a rose garden either. LOL.

Laughlin is opposite Bullhead City with the Colorado River between the two. Don Laughlin bought six acres and a deserted motel in the desert south of Las Vegas for $235,000 in 1964. With a $35,000 down payment, his modest investment grew into the million-dollar Riverside Casino and made Mr. Laughlin a very rich man. He died in 2023 but his legacy lives on. In 1987 he personally paid for construction of the first bridge connecting Laughlin and Bullhead at a cost of $3.5 million. In contrast, a brand-new bridge was built about eight miles away at the other end of Laughlin, opening in 2024, at a cost of $60 million to the federal and local governments. Including Riverside, there are now eight casinos along the river, all with great views, and great bingo.

One of my favorite holidays occurs this month on Friday, June 13th. It's Blame Someone Else day, allowing me an entire 24-hours' worth of not accepting blame for any and all of my foibles. My husband would say I do that anyway, not just on June 13th. Now I ask you, why would I confess to multiple sins when I can blame him?

Example: Nan, our pizza is burnt, you didn't get it out of the oven. Me: You didn't tell me to start the timer. Or, Nan, hand me our passports to get into Canada. Me: You didn't tell me to pack them. That last one necessitated our turning around after a four-hour drive and heading home. He was not a happy camper. Until next month, may Lady Luck blow you kisses as you dance out the door with dollars. Win big. Contact: nlpvzw6172@gmail.com.

From Aunt B's Archives

Dear Aunt Bingo,
I'm hoping you might publish my poem. I'm sure my fellow players can relate.

An Ode to Bingo

Here I sit at Bingo again,
Wishing that I'm going to win.

Don't leave me hanging with one away,
Here's hoping it's my lucky day.

As the numbers tumble about,
Let the one I need just come out.

Although it's just an old cliché,
If not me, let it be you today.

The Bingo games they come and go.
And if I win, I'll tell you so.

All in all, I must admit,
It's not the win, but the friends I get.

—Carol Wellhoff, Saint Paul, Minnesota

Dear Carol,
I am so happy to have received your poem and equally happy to share it with fellow players. —Aunt Bingo

Dear Aunt Bingo,
I had to write in after reading so many issues of "Dear Aunt Bingo" with my aging grandfather. My grandfather used to be a poker player but in his old age he stopped going to casinos to play. He sat around the house for about two years playing online poker, and I would go and visit, watch him play, and we would talk.

Then the government cracked down on online poker, and my grandfather lost his will to get out of the house or even bed. This went on for a few months, and every time I came to visit him, I would bring him a Bingo Bugle to read. He would read your column each week, but thought Bingo was a stupid low-limit game, until he saw an advertisement for a huge local jumbo jackpot game, and for the first time in months he called me and asked me to pick him up and head to the casino. He was instantly hooked. The possibility of a large progressive payout lifted his spirits! It's not like he plays to win, he just loves to play to get in the action—to sit next to me, share some old stories over a beer, and to ask some of the ladies that can still drive for their Facebook information! He is back, baby! My grandfather and I now attend various Bingo sessions around Las Vegas at least three times a week, and he has started to date one of the Bingo callers at a local establishment!

So, thank you, Aunt Bingo. Your column has connected some elderly lovebirds and made one grandson happy as a clam! —J. G., Tempe, Arizona

Dear John,
I'm glad to hear that the Bingo Bugle helped get your grandfather up and out of the house again. But to be honest, it sounds to me like a certain grandson had a LOT to do with it! —Aunt Bingo
