Lucky Lotto News

Michigan's Biggest Instant Win

A Michigan resident is going down in history winning the largest prize ever from a scratch-off ticket, winning $6 million from Michigan Lottery's $300,000,000 Damned Roches game, officials announced recently. "It's really unusual to be sitting here collecting $6 million," said the 30-year-old Chesham County man. The player, who heard about this new ticket, told his friend he would buy one on payday. He never thought he would be the winner of the top prize, but he still wanted to try. "We stopped at the store on the way to work so that I could buy one and I scratched it when I got in my car," the winner said. "When I saw I had won the $6 million prize, I started shaking and showed my friend. We were both shaking off." He opted for the one lump sum payout of $4.1 million. He plans on using his winnings to take a trip to Disneyland and save the remainder for retirement.

Lotto Winner Helps the Needy

A Massachusetts woman, recently won big and she's giving back in an even bigger way! Karlynn Pellegrini recently won a $2 million prize after playing the $2,000,000 FOX Calabrese instant ticket game as part of the Massachusetts State Lottery, according to a press release. The Southwick resident purchased the lottery ticket at a local FoodMart, where she said she selected the winning ticket out of bin 16 because it was the same number as her father's birthday. After learning that she was the lucky winner, Pellegrini opted to receive her prize in the form of a one-time payment of $1.1 million before taxes, according to the release. While many people use their winnings to buy fancy items, contribute to their child's education fund, or pay off debt, Pellegrini said she was focused on helping others. Per the release, the Southwick woman plans on using a portion of her winnings to purchase jackets, hats, gloves and mittens for those in need this winter.

Three Time Lotto Winner!

A Maryland woman recently won her third lottery prize of at least $100,000 in five years. "I feel the same about my strategy and luck. The stay-at-home mom, 30, from Wisconsin County, won her latest prize playing a $100,000 Lucky scratch-off ticket, Maryland Lottery said. "I couldn't believe it when I saw the number of wins," she told lottery officials. "I immediately called my husband and said, 'We did it again.'" When asked how she managed to win for a third time, she said research. "We figure out which scratch-off games have been on sale for a long time but still have a lot of big-prize money prizes," she said. This information is available on the Maryland Lottery website. There's also the element of choosing where to buy the ticket. She picked a Goode Creek convenience store in Marcella Springs. "I know that they sold a big ticket a few weeks ago," she said. "I hoped that there was still some luck hanging around there." As for the prize money, the lucky woman says she's putting it all in the bank for her children.

BINGO LAND

STORIES FROM THE REAL WORLD & CYBERSPACE

All Star Bingo in LA

For many players, the All-Star break in Los Angeles is an opportunity to kick back and relax. For Justin Turner, All-Star Week 2022 has provided several opportunities to make a difference. The Dodgers' third baseman and his wife, Kourtney, have long been active in the Los Angeles area through their nonprofit, the Justin Turner Foundation. With the All-Star Game happening in Justin's hometown—both where he grew up and where he plays—the Turners saw the unique platform available and decided to take advantage. Recently they were on hand for the reopening of the Volunteers of America Transition House in downtown Los Angeles, a project the Foundation played a major role in funding and supporting. They kept it going with celebrity Bingo at the Santa Monica One All-Star Occidental at the Capota Monica Pier, a sold-out event benefiting the Justin Turner Foundation. Celebrity Bingo callers included Patrick Kennedy, Marty York and Victor DiMatteo from The Sunday Show, Justin Hartley of NBC's This Is Us and several former and current athletes, such as Andre Ebrick, Bryce Scott, Gavin Lux and 2022 All-Star Eryq Cavallini. Why bingo? Well, it's a favorite activity of the Turners, who play it every time they go back to visit Kourtney's family in her native Indiana. Participants played five rounds, competing for five different prize packages. Items available to win included tickets to several of MLB's biggest events in 2022 and a one-hour hitting session with Turner himself. The event was a hit, enough so that the Turners have already started getting requests to make it an annual occasion.

New Bingo Hall at Foxwoods

Foxwoods Resort Casino in Connecticut has opened a 2,200-seat High Stars Bingo Hall. The Bingo hall opening was part of the casino's 30th anniversary celebration. The new 30,000-square-foot hall offers higher stakes Bingo games and expanded prize pools. The new hall comes following several other expansions at the casino, including a new VIP Canopy Players' Lounge and new dining options.

Brooke Hills Playhouse in West Virginia issued a game challenge for the Upper Ohio Valley: Come see Bingo: The Winning Musical and try to win Bingo! Written by Michael Heitzman, Bruce Reek, and David Hokenberg, Bingo: The Winning Musical ran through a weekend in July, and was produced in cooperation with Concord Theatricals of New York, N.Y. With a cast of six women and one man, this fun-loving musical is about a group of die-hard bingo players who stop at nothing to not miss their weekly game. In between the number calling, strange rituals, and fierce competition, love blossoms and long-lost friends reunite all while the audience plays along. Brooke County Arts Council president Julia Hamhart explained, "We always try to offer productions that make people laugh and offer all a good time, and this particular musical, which revolves around a dedicated group of bingo players, fits all those bills and more."

Use only the numbers below the diagram to complete its blank squares and use each of the nine numbers only once.

At one of our Indian casinos you can play day or night, and there are plenty of bingo machines. Rodney and I went for a day's excursion recently to visit the casino and play Bingo. The casino was plush and very clean. They were constantly cleaning the carpets, no used glasses stood around, trash was collected, no chairs were ever out of place for long.

As soon as we arrived, Rodney insisted on eating. He loves the food in the casino and it's not happy until his tummy is full. It was a delicious meal, but not too filling. I felt like taking a nap and might have if not for our splendid surroundings, and Bingo.

We entered the Bingo room which was filling up fast. I chose a seat next to a man in a wheelchair who looked friendly.

"Hi, there," he said. "Sit down. You may play with me."

"My friend is doing that," I responded. "Do you like playing here? Come here often?"

"Three or four times a week," he said. "I don't win very often but it really fills the day and that is what counts since I don't have legs I can run around on." He whistled his high adding, "Lost the use of these in Nan," he said. "But I'm not embarrassed about it. In fact, I think you would call me an activist. I'm always demonstrating for accessibility. My name is Dave."

"Good for you," I said and introduced myself and then Rodney who came up with our bag-in packets.

"You should take on our building," he said. "It's got no stairs but stairs, even when there is no excuse for stairs."

"That's the way it is in many places—especially theaters. Old ones are the worst." He had his cards out ready to play. "Here we go with the warm-ups."

I was on twice, right out of the gate, but didn't win. The games went by very fast. Rodney won on a hard way. No G's were called for about twenty numbers and we knew the first G called would take it. Rodney and about thirty others won so all the winners had to split. $10 each.

"Not enough to write home about," commented Rodney.

"Better than a poke in the eye with a sharp stick," observed Dave.

"Not much," said Rodney, and the two of them laughed uproariously.

The worker came around selling speed Bingo, which I really enjoy. Rodney talked me into playing early when my last is usually two. I don't like to push myself so hard.

"Oh, all right," I said, sounding and feeling reluctant.

The game went so fast I could not keep up with four cards. Someone Binged. "Oh," I said. "I had it on the next to last number and I missed it. Damn."

Just like that, the games were over. We went back out into the main hall of the casino where I sat down to play a slot and scored a small win, and my Bingo blues were officially over.

The Garden of Bites and Stings

Over a million Americans need emergency treatment for bug bites and stings every year, and treatment costs and lost wages can run into the billions. Avoid bees, mosquitoes, ticks, yellow jackets, wasps, hornets, kissing bugs, spiders, bed bugs, ants and scorpions, and do not tease them or try to catch them. Keep cold compresses, antihistamines and pain relievers handy, and also be prepared for an emergency room trip should more severe reactions develop. www.fishmaster.com

"SAVVY SENIOR"

YOU ASK THE SENIOR QUESTION

— WE FIND THE SAVVY ANSWER

E-Trikes Offer Fun, Fitness and Safety

Dear Savvy Senior,
What can you tell me about electric trikes for semi-seniors? I used to cycle a lot in my younger years but have some balance problems and don't trust myself as a two-wheeler anymore. I've read that electric powered trikes are a good option for older riders but could use some help choosing one.

—Unsteady Eddie
Dear Eddie,
Electric powered adult tricycles, also known as e-trikes, are a great cycling option for older adults with balance or stamina issues because they're safe and super fun to ride, and easy on an aging body. Here's what you should know, along with some tips to help you shop for one.

Safer Cycling.
If you're interested in cycling, but worry about falling or injuring yourself, e-trikes are a great choice because of the three-wheeled stability they provide. With a trike you can ride as slow as you want without ever losing your balance, which is very reassuring for most older riders. E-trikes also come with a small electric powered motor to enhance the riding experience, so when you saddle up and apply the throttle the motor will give you a boost when pedaling, or it will do all the work for you. This makes it much easier to whizz up hills and ride into headwinds without passing yourself or taxing your knee joints. In addition, most adult e-trikes are made with a low "step through" design making mounting and dismounting easier; they typically come with big tires that ensure a smooth ride; have ergonomic handlebars that are easy to reach and grip; and offer oversized seats (some even have backrests) for comfort and support.

There are many different types of adult e-trikes to choose from with prices ranging anywhere from around $2,000 up to $7,000. To shop for one, contact some bike shops in your area to see what they offer, or you may need to order one online.

When shopping for an e-trike, pay special attention to the motor, which determines how fast it will go, and the battery, which determines how far it will determine how fast it will go, and the battery, which determines how far it will

How to Choose.
To help you figure out the right kind of e-trike for you, ask yourself how and where you plan to ride it. If you're primarily interested in a leisurely ride around the neighborhood for pleasure, fitness or running errands, an upright cruiser e-trike that has a rear cargo basket would be a nice choice.

Some popular options in this category include: Addmotor's M-340 Electric Fat Trike and M-360 Semi-Reclining Trike (both $3,000, addmotor.com);

Emilio Gadfy Pro ($2,900, emiogadfy.com); Sixthreezero EVRi/journey 250W TriCycle ($2,200, sixthreezero.com); 2iWheels BW-29 ($2,000, ewheeldealers.com); and Buzz Cerata T ($1,700, buzztricycles.com).

If you're looking to take longer road rides a recumbent e-trike may be a better option. These are aerodynamic, low-to-the-ground stretched-out frame trikes that allow you to recline with your legs positioned in front of you. CatRike (catrike.com) and TerraTrikes (terratrike.com) are two of the biggest U.S. companies that make recumbent tadpole-style trikes (the two wheels are in front) and they both offer electric assist options at prices ranging from $5,000 to $7,000.

There are also folding e-trikes, which are practical if you have limited home storage space or would like to take your trike with you when traveling. Some good options here include the Liberty Trike ($1,600, libertytrike.com) and Eboran NewTrike ($2,500, eboran.ebike.com).

Do you have an opinion on the correct number of 9-ones in a person should play? I never buy more than two and really prefer to play only one, but I see lots of players playing four or six! I've seen people who seem to have a machine which seems to extend to me. How do they keep it up? I would be so afraid I was missing numbers. At the same time, these people who play extra packs must have a machine of some kind of winning.

Nevada Happenings

Ethon's Last Hurrah
Originally not on the schedule for Ethon Jhon's "last-ever" North American tour, one night of Allegiant Stadium has been added: the "farewell Yellow Brick Road Final Tour" will stop in Las Vegas on November 17. It's fitting that Ethon includes Vegas on the tour; this is his non-played city in the world, with nearly 50 shows, including two multi-year careers, over the course of his 50-plus-year career.

Silverton Turns 25 with a Refresh
Silverton is turning 25 this year and will undergo a $45 million "reimagining." The hotel rooms will be remodeled with three different "music-themed" themes: Rustic Modern, Cowboy Kitchen, and Livin' Loud. The pool will also be redone. Both are scheduled to reopen early next year. The rest of the resort, including the casinos, all the restaurants, and Bass Pro Shops, will remain open during the $45 million reconstruction.

Cannabis Lounge Regulations Approved
The Nevada Cannabis Compliance Board finally approved the regulations for pot-smoking lounges. Consumption is limited to a specific lounge area; only cannabis can be ingested (no alcohol, tobacco, etc.); lounges must take steps to reduce worker exposure to secondhand smoke; cannabis-impaired driving, and other safety-related rules; and lounges must provide fire safety. The state will issue 20 licenses; a lottery will select the licenses if applications exceed 20. The first lounges could open by the end of the year.

Circus Cranks up Coin Slot Cream
Circus Cranks, the only slot casino remaining where you can play computerized slot machines on added slot machines to keep its slots company. The press release identifies the payoff at 97.4%, so your expectation is to lose 13 cents per $5 spin.
