BYO BBQ Sauce

Dear Annie,
Do you have a recipe for barbecue sauce? I am so tired of the bottled variety. We love barbecuing ribs and chicken for the family. I just need something different for a change. Also, do you have a recipe for baked beans that's easy? Please help me.
Barbara from Jacksonville, Ga.

Dear Barbara,
Many years ago, a cousin of my husband, suggested the following combination of ingredients for a delicious barbecue sauce.

Every time I've served it my guests have loved it. My baked beans recipe is easy to make, too. Enjoy! —Annie

HOMEMADE BARBECUE SAUCE

- 1 8-ounce bottle sweet and sour dressing
- 1 quart-bottle barbecue sauce—any one you chose
- 6 ounces chili sauce
- 2 tablespoons hois-n sauce (Chinese food section)
- 2 tablespoons honey

Combine all of the above ingredients in an appropriately sized saucepan. Heat over a low flame for at least 10 minutes. Serve with ribs, chicken, beef or whatever you choose.

BAKED BEANS-THE EASY WAY

- 4 bacon slices
- 1 28-ounce can pork and beans
- 1 small onion, diced
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- ¼ cup sorghum syrup or honey
- ¼ cup ketchup
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard

Cook the bacon in a skillet or the microwave for 3 to 4 minutes. Cut into 1-inch pieces. In a one quart, lightly greased baking dish, combine the remaining ingredients. Add the bacon. Bake uncovered at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

A Peter White Christmas with Mindi Abair and Vincent Ingala to perform at Santa Fe Station

Saturday, December 20, 2025 at 8 p.m.

Tickets on sale – Friday, August 22, 2025 at 10 a.m.

LAS VEGAS – August 18, 2025 – Make your list and check it twice. This holiday concert is more than just nice. A Peter White Christmas with Mindi Abair and Vincent Ingala is coming to Chrome Showroom at Santa Fe Station on Saturday, December 20, 2025 at 8 p.m. Tickets start at $47.50 plus applicable fees and go on sale Friday, August 22, 2025 at 10 a.m.

Peter White is an extraordinary and fluent acoustic guitarist whose skills are world-renowned. Revered saxophonist Mindi Abair returns again with her dynamic vigor ready to captivate audiences far & wide. Peter recalls, "My earliest memories of Christmas were probably not much different from many other people: snowflakes, tinsel, Santa Claus, reindeer, and the opening of presents surrounded by family. As a child, my father taught me to play Christmas music on my first instrument, the recorder, and my love for Christmas music has endured throughout the years. I hope this tour will be an opportunity for many Smooth Jazz fans to enjoy their favorite Christmas songs in a family setting. You know, I might even bring my recorder!" Peter White's classic acoustic guitar style can be enjoyed through an ever-growing and best-selling catalog, including his latest release "Light of Day" (2025).

Mindi Abair reminisces "Growing up, my family would get together for Christmas every year". "My grandmother would cook oyster stuffing and rhubarb pie, and we'd all play and sing together. I still make a rhubarb pie every year in her honor. My grandmother gave me great advice early on, 'If you play the piano you can be the life of any party!'" Mindi's latest release "I Can't Wait for Christmas" (2024) on Pretty Good For A Girl Records is a 10-song collection of holiday classics that transports listeners straight to the heart of the holiday season, blending timeless classics with fresh, soulful originality.

Vincent Ingala "I can vividly remember not being able to fall asleep waiting for Santa Claus to arrive on Christmas Eve. Somehow though, he always managed to get the job done while I was sleeping, and before I could catch him! I remember feeling extra special that Santa would place all of the gifts around the fireplace like a display, as opposed to them being wrapped under the Christmas tree. I would sneak downstairs multiple times with my flashlight to get a sneak peek before the sun would rise on Christmas morning! Memories such as these I will always continue to hold in my heart, and they are what makes Christmas a very magical time of the year." Vincent's latest release is "Escape with Me" (2024) on Shanachie Records.

Tickets for A Peter White Christmas with Mindi Abair and Vincent Ingala are $47.50, $57.50, and $77.50 plus applicable fees for reserved seating. Doors open at 7 p.m. and guests under 21 must be accompanied by an adult 21 years or older. Tickets go on sale Friday, August 22, 2025 at 10 a.m. and can be purchased at any Station Casinos Reward Center www.stationcasinoslive.com or through Ticketmaster at www.ticketmaster.com.

Celebrate National Fruits and Veggies Month

Take a walk with me to Wikipedia...
"National Fruits & Veggies Month is a national observance and awareness campaign held in the United States during September to educate about the health benefits of eating fruits and vegetables and to celebrate how they are grown, distributed, and consumed." Thanks, Wikipedia!

Why is awareness so important?

- Boost health: Fruits and veggies are packed with vitamins, minerals, and fiber essential for staying active and strong.
- Reduce health risks: A diet rich in fruits and vegetables can lower the risk of chronic conditions like heart disease, type 2 diabetes, obesity, and certain cancers.
- Manage weight: Fruits and vegetables are typically low in calories and high in fiber, which helps you feel fuller for longer and can aid in weight management.
- Setting a good example: Eating a healthy diet and incorporating fruits and vegetables can positively impact children's food choices.

Ways to celebrate National Fruits and Veggies Month

- Explore the produce aisle: Try new fruits and vegetables to add variety and color to your diet.
- Support local farmers: Visit farmers' markets for fresh, seasonal produce.
- Get creative in the kitchen: Incorporate more vegetables into meals like salads, soups, and stir-fries.
- Share the love: Inspire others by sharing your favorite fruit and vegetable tips and recipes.

DEAR AUNT BINGO

by Bonnie Mitchell

Save Our Bingos

Dear Aunt Bingo, We have had a number of small local halls go out of business. I think this is terrible, not only because there are less places to play, but also because I have to travel farther now if I want to go to different halls. What can players do to keep from having more halls close?

—Lana, via e-mail

Dear Lana, There are two key reasons why small halls close down: they do not get enough players, or they do not have enough volunteers willing to work Bingo.

BROOM-HILDA

Pooperheads and Bingo

Being an old Pooperhead means that some days you eat salad and go to yoga. Other days you devour cake, embrace a recliner, and refuse to wear pants. —Ms. Anonymous

Ah, sweet September! The herds of turtles and knee climbers, incoming students as some of my teacher friends referred to them, are back in school. I can hear the whoosh of relief as parents everywhere rejoice and put their feet up while pouring a morning Mimosa or Bloody Mary to enhance the moment. I enjoyed teaching and looked forward to meeting my new class each year but must confess to downing a margarita or glass of wine at the end of day as I acclimated to my new charges. On the same topic, sort of, September 8-12th is Substitute Teacher Appreciation week. I made a sub box the start of each new year for use by subs when I was absent. Everything needed was included with treats for my class and a special set of bingo cards to play bingo at day's end for good behavior. Needless to say, my subs loved me.

Also, my go to game for reviewing facts and important info for my students was bingo. I made special bingo cards with boxes specific to the topic I was teaching.

Players don't realize how much goes into putting on a charity Bingo. There are licenses, inspectors, bookkeeping, recruiting volunteers, setting up, cleaning—it goes on and on. Most of these Bingos run the games not to make money, but to collect money they then give to those in need. It requires a lot of hard work and sacrifice, which is done for one reason—charity.

The best thing people can do to keep these games going is to keep playing, and perhaps join a sponsor organization and offer to volunteer. It might be fun to see Bingo from the other side. If just a handful of people play one more time a week or become Bingo volunteers at a particular hall, it will do wonders for the games and for the good work they do.

Oh, and don't forget, bring friends and relatives; you could even volunteer to be the Bingo shuttle and play car bingo on the way to the game to get everyone revved up and ready to play. —Aunt Bingo

Misinformation

It amazes me how many blackjack players believe the misinformation dispensed by fellow players, and even dealers, about the game of blackjack. Here are three classic nuggets of misinformation worth reviewing regularly; next month we'll reveal three more.

"Picture Cards Always Follow Picture Cards"

Some players will refuse to hit their stiff hands if they just saw a picture card come out of the shoe. The reason: they believe that "a picture card always follows a picture card." Clearly that can't be the case, and, in fact, the opposite is true, namely that once you see a picture card the chance that the next card will be a picture card has decreased. The reason? If you just saw a picture card there must be less of them in the un-played deck of cards meaning your chances of drawing another has decreased (not increased).

The Protein-Packed Salad You'll Love All Week

This white bean tuna salad is loaded with fresh herbs, sweet red peppers and pickled shallot. It's dressed in a tangy lemon and olive oil dressing, making it the perfect option for when you want a light yet filling meal without the stress of last-minute cooking.

If you're looking to save even more time during the week, consider doubling or tripling this recipe. The recipe generously serves four, but it's easy to scale up for meal prep that lasts all week. Make a larger batch and store it in the fridge for grab-and-go lunches or quick dinners. The best part? This salad only gets better as it rests, so the flavors will deepen, giving you a satisfying meal throughout the week with minimal effort.

This tuna and white bean salad is packed with health benefits. Tuna is rich in omega-3 fatty acids, which are great for heart health, and it's an excellent source of lean protein. Plus, the white beans provide fiber and a creamy texture that balances the tuna perfectly. We use a simple, olive oil-based vinaigrette, which not only adds a burst of flavor, but also comes with its own set of health perks, like promoting healthy cholesterol levels.

This salad isn't just healthy, it's also incredibly versatile. It works beautifully over a bed of fresh greens, wrapped in tortillas or piled on soft, chewy bread. For those who love a crunch, it's great on crispy toast or paired with crackers. It can be served cold or at room temperature, making it ideal for those days when it's just too hot.

If you find yourself getting tired of the salad cold, simply heat it in a skillet for a warm twist. You can serve it over lemony rice or even on open-faced toasted bread for a comforting, yet light, meal.

TUNA AND WHITE BEAN SALAD

Yield: 4 servings

Total Time: 20 minutes

Pickled Shallot:

3 tablespoons red wine vinegar

1 teaspoon granulated sugar

1/4 cup (1 medium) shallot, sliced very thin

Lemon Vinaigrette:

1 lemon, zest and juice (about 1/4 cup juice)

1 teaspoon Dijon mustard

1 garlic clove, minced or grated

3 tablespoons olive oil

1/4 teaspoon kosher salt

1/4 teaspoon fresh-ground black pepper

The Salad:

1 (12-ounce) can tuna packed in water, drained and rinsed

2 (15-ounce) cans (3 cups) canned white beans, drained and rinsed

1 cup chopped red bell pepper

1 cup chopped celery

1/2 cup chopped fresh parsley

2 green onions, sliced (about 1/4 cup)

In a small bowl, place red wine vinegar with sugar and stir, add shallot and combine. Refrigerate for 20 minutes.

Zest and juice the lemon, setting zest aside for later. Mix the vinaigrette ingredients; whisk to emulsify. Refrigerate while you make the salad.

Put the tuna, beans, red pepper, celery, parsley and green onion in a large bowl. Toss gently to combine. Add pickled onions with vinegar and vinaigrette. Toss again and top with lemon zest. Serve with gusto!

BINGO LAND

NEWS FROM THE REAL WORLD & CYBERSPACE

Bingo Capital of the U.S.?

No, it's not Las Vegas. In fact, even considering the entire state, Nevada isn't close. A report by gambling.com pegs Montana as the easy bingo capital of the U.S. and likely the world, with 28.4 bingo halls per 100,000 residents. Vermont is a distant second at 8.2 bingo halls. Montana has 324; Pennsylvania has the most at 702. Nevada? It ranks 45th in the U.S. with just 24 bingo halls, which is .7 per 100,000 residents. Hawaii and Tennessee have no bingo halls.

Death Bingo?!

We receive quite a few questions about bingo variants around the world and online. The following information aims to answer all the questions in one go!

At the heart of North American bingo culture lies the 75-ball variant, known for its creative patterns that players aim to complete on their 5x5 grid with 25 squares. Across the pond, 90-ball bingo reigns supreme, especially in the UK, Australia, and parts of Europe. Characterized by its 9x3 grid (27 squares total); this version unfolds over three stages: one line, two lines, and finally, a full house, where all numbers on a card are called. The gradual buildup and multiple winners make 90-ball bingo a fun social experience.

Less common Bingo variations include: --Speed bingo: primarily played online; with 30 balls and a compact 3x3 grid, games are fast-paced and can be completed in just a few minutes.

--80-ball bingo: this version emerged in the U.K. and is now particularly popular on online platforms there; it consists of a 4x4 grid with 16 squares; balls are divided into four color-coded groups.

--Flash Fives (52-5 bingo) where players are dealt hands from a deck of cards, and the goal is to cover five cards on their ticket as the dealer reveals the deck card by card. Available at some bingo locations and online sites/apps.

--U-Pick'Em Bingo, where players select their own numbers on a bingo card. Often played in conjunction with traditional bingo games, U-Pick'Em is found at various bingo locations, online and off.

--Death Bingo: In the shadowy corners of the bingo world lies Death Bingo, a variant that mixes dark humor with a dash of suspense. Here, the stakes are high, and tensions tend to rise, as the first person to shout "Bingo!" is, ironically, eliminated from the game. This twist keeps players on the edge of their seats, as they balance the thrill of nearing victory with the looming threat of elimination. Perfect for Halloween parties, Death Bingo turns the traditional goal of bingo on its head. But maybe a better name would be White Out Bingo?

Tough Spot for Pocket Jacks – How Poker Math Saved Kept Me Alive

By Jonathan Little

I recently played a tough hand in a $1,000 buy-in tournament that I think is incredibly educational. With blinds at 400/800/800, a loose, aggressive player raised to 1,800 out of his 30,000 stack from third position at a nine-handed table. I found pocket Jacks on the button and three-bet to 4,400 out of my 25,000 stack.

The purpose of my somewhat small three-bet size is to allow my opponent to call and see a flop with a hand that I frequently dominate while also giving him plenty of room to get out of line and put in a four-bet, potentially all in.

To my surprise, another loose, aggressive player four-bet all-in for 25,000 from the small blind.

The action folded around to the initial raiser who thought for about 15 seconds before announcing, “All in.” That was not what I expected!

Now I have to figure out both players’ ranges and then see how my pocket Jacks fare. The small blind almost certainly has a snug range, perhaps A-A thru 9-9, A-K, and maybe A-Q. Against this range, Jacks is in decent shape, winning 50% of the time. The initial raiser, who pushed all in on top of the small blind’s all-in four-bet, certainly has an incredibly strong range, perhaps only A-A thru J-J and A-K. Against this tight range, Jacks wins only 36% of the time. Against both players combined, Jacks wins 28% of the time. That is not too often!

While I am getting decent pot odds – I have to put in 20,500 to win a 56,000 pot – I am getting roughly a break-even price. To calculate my pot odds, you take the amount I have to call (20,500) and divide it by the amount I have to call plus the current pot (20,500 + 56,000 = 76,500). This means I need to win 20,500/76,500 = 26% of the time to justify calling.

Since I will win 28% of the time and I only need to win 26% based on the pot odds, calling will return a tiny profit. However, in a tournament, you should strive not go broke. Calling in this situation will result in me going broke 72% of the time. That is not ideal.

It is worth noting that I may have made a mistake in estimating my opponents’ ranges. They may be a bit tighter than I estimated. If they are tighter than expected, my call quickly becomes unprofitable. Of course, they could also be much looser, but you will find that very few players are trying to get their money in poorly.

Taking all these factors into account, plus the fact that I think I play better most of my opponents in this $1,000 buy-in event, I should fold, which is what I did. Fortunately for me, the small blind had A-K and the initial raiser had Kings. By understanding the math behind this situation, I avoided going broke, allowing me to continue playing the tournament and finding profitable situations in the future.

Across the Pond

The United States and the United kingdom have a lot of shared interests when it comes to TV, especially comedies, but do you ever wonder which podcasts the Brits are downloading? According to the Spotify podcast charts, these podcasts frequently produce high numbers. Best of all, they’re available here in the U.S. on most apps:

The Louis Theroux Podcast — British journalist, documentarian and author Louis Theroux welcomes a new guest each week for an in-depth, freewheeling conversation. Singer Ed Sheeran, actor Sean Penn, and former Daily Show host Trevor Noah are just a few names you’ll recognize, but his interviews with those who are less famous are even more captivating. (Spotify.com)

Journey Through Time — Hosts David Olusoga and Sarah Churchwell bring you the forgotten stories from history about the ordinary people whose impact is still felt in the present time. It’s here where we learn about Eleanor Rathbone, the member of Parliament who was instrumental in implementing child benefits and welfare. Forgotten heroes like her live on in this podcast. (Goalhanger.com)

The Rest Is Politics — Hosts Alastair Campbell and Rory Stewart break down current affairs in the U.K. and abroad. They analyze and debate global issues “whilst bringing back the lost art of disagreeing agreeably.” Hear what others have to say besides CNN, NPR and Fox News about the recent U.S. air strike on Iran. They also cover issues in their own backyard like “How to Solve Britain’s Immigration Question.” (TheRestIsPolitics.com)

DEAR PAWS: I don’t see the point of vaccinating a pet, especially if they’re kept inside for most of their lives. I’ve read that vaccines can cause more harm than good. It’s not natural to vaccinate. A dog or cat’s immune system should be able to handle most diseases. So why bother to vaccinate? — Natural Pet Parent

DEAR NATURAL: You couldn’t be more wrong. A pet’s immune system is not an invulnerable shield; it’s a constantly adapting system that has to “learn” what microbes and viruses are threats and which are not. Unfortunately, some diseases cause serious illness or death before a pet’s immune system can respond to them.

Vaccines help a pet’s immune system learn about specific threats without causing harm to your pet. Vaccines contain a safe, weakened or killed version of a pathogen, allowing the immune system to produce antibodies to attack that pathogen and they remember that in the future.

A disease like rabies, which is fatal, is best fought off by a vaccine, which helps your immune system mount a frontline defense if a pet is exposed to it. For example, if a vaccinated cat is attacked and bitten by a rabid fox or raccoon, a veterinarian will give the cat a booster shot and monitor the cat in quarantine for 30 to 60 days. An unvaccinated cat who is attacked by a rabid animal might be euthanized immediately, or quarantined for up to 4 months.

Because there is no such thing as 100% prevention from exposure to various diseases, even your indoor pets need to have their core vaccinations.

Horoscopes for September 2025

ARIES (MAR 21-APR 20): Your ruler in your opposite sign this month allows you to step into another person’s shoes and get a clear idea of what they are experiencing and struggling with. That view will be useful, as diplomacy rather than insensitivity will take you far now.

Lucky Days: 5 - 14

Lucky Numbers: 23 - 44

TAURUS (APR 21-MAY 21): You’ll want to keep a diligent eye on finances and practice some serious budgeting this month. Any extravagant energy you have at your disposal should be channeled into creative projects. Preferably endeavors that put you out into the natural world where you thrive.

Lucky Days: 3 - 13

Lucky Numbers: 7 - 17

GEMINI (MAY 22-JUN 21): With the full Moon on the 6th, you might feel as though you’re being challenged on several fronts simultaneously: work, home, and partnerships. Don’t overthink things now. Pause, and watch and wait for the dust to settle so you can see clearly your next move.

Lucky Days: 5 - 6

Lucky Numbers: 29 - 55

CANCER (JUN 22-JUL 22): You’re toggling between two energy extremes this month. Fortunately, you have an easier time maneuvering what would be contradictory situations for others. Pay attention to when you need to push. And when it’s time to wait in the wings. Timing is everything right now.

Lucky Days: 4 - 30

Lucky Numbers: 55 - 58

LEO (JUL 23-AUG 23): Your customary upbeat nature gets a boost this month with Venus, the charm planet, in your sign. This is also a reminder that with all your endeavors, sweetness and optimism have a magnetic effect on those in your circle. It’s not magic; it’s just the power of positivity.

Lucky Days: 10 - 27

Lucky Numbers: 34 - 51

VIRGO (AUG 24-SEP 23): The full Moon on the 6th pulls your attention into ways you can improve communication within your existing relationships. Consider bringing elements of surprise into the mix; anything to dispel the feeling that things are trapped in a same old same old pattern.

Lucky Days: 3 - 28

Lucky Numbers: 5 - 33

LIBRA (SEP 24-OCT 23): This is a dynamic month where the urge to strike out on your own challenges your domestic scene. You’ll need to find a compromise if you wish to maintain the status quo. But should you be looking to explore new worlds, go ahead and forgo the peace and quiet.

Lucky Days: 4 - 10

Lucky Numbers: 9 - 19

SCORPIO (OCT 24-NOV 22): You always prosper when you finally release yourself from the things you’ve been reluctant to forgo. It sounds counterintuitive, but it’s really just a simple law of the universe. Namely, when one door closes, another one opens. Make that your theme this month.

Lucky Days: 7 - 20

Lucky Numbers: 3 - 18

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 23-DEC 21): September finds you reminiscing on old times and friends. Why not rearrange your schedule to reach out to the people who have meant the most to you in your life? Don’t just send an email; give them a call, or better yet visit them in person. This will gladden your heart.

Lucky Days: 5 - 11

Lucky Numbers: 23 - 33

CAPRICORN (DEC 22-JAN 20): Don’t limit yourself to one idea or approach. And don’t stop with the first answer that you find. Dig deeper and reconsider what you might have passed on earlier. This is a month for rethinking and rearranging affairs to allow for the surprising to take root and, well, surprise you!

Lucky Days: 1 - 7

Lucky Numbers: 55 - 60

AQUARIUS (JAN 21-FEB 19): Don’t play it safe now; if anything, push against barriers and remake the borders that define your world presently. You’re entering a new seven-year cycle that will remake your world, but you need to prepare and train yourself for what it feels like to be a rule-breaker.

Lucky Days: 6 - 10

Lucky Numbers: 3 - 57

PISCES (FEB 20-MAR 20): The full Moon on the 6th occurs in your sign and brings with it a pressure to untangle yourself from limitations. What isn’t supporting your finest efforts should be abandoned. It may take strategizing, but clear sailing lies ahead when you gather the courage to break free.

Lucky Days: 3 - 21

Lucky Numbers: 5 - 55
